BEACHES

Take some time this January to explore one of Waimakariri's wide open, sandy beaches - available for you to enjoy all summer long. Great for a morning walk, to fill your lungs with fresh sea air, catch a sunrise and have fun with the family. Kairaki Pines Beach, Woodend Beach, Waikuku Beach*, Pegasus Beach*.

 Surf Life Saving crews patrol at Waikuku, and also cover Woodend Beach and Pegasus Beach during the peak summer season. The public are advised to swim at these locations.*

16th & 17th: South Island BMX Titles 8am - 5pm, North Canterbury BMX Track, Milton Ave, Rangiora. This event will see the best riders from across New Zealand to take away the "SI" ranking plates for each age group, from the 8 years old through to 50+ seniors.

19th: InflataRun 12pm – 3pm, Mandeville Sports Centre. InflataRun is a new running event that creates bespoke obstacle course races from 500m to 3km! Tickets available on the day.

25th – 28th: HSPA Performing Arts Summer Camp 10.30pm – 4pm, 62 Ashley Street, Rangiora. Come as often as you like to learn dance, singing and acting skills. No previous experience needed, just come and have fun!

31st: 10th Annual Open Day at Tūhaitara 10am – 2pm, Woodend Beach Domain. Celebrate 10 years of conservation and community. There will be activities and interactive demonstrations for all ages and a few surprises including a community art project.

23RD – 24TH: MUSCLE CAR MADNESS

Rangiora A & P Showgrounds, Ashley Street

A car show with a difference - there is something for everyone in the family. Thousands of cars on display - hot rods, muscle cars, rat rods, classics and vehicles of special interest. A great variety of delicious food and drink. Bouncy castles, ride on jeeps, carnival stalls and much more.
